

Public Meeting

Water Quality Solutions and the Elk Run Creek Investigation in Carroll County

Date: April 5, 2005

Time: 7 - 9 p.m.

Location: Bishop Greteman Center
421 E Bluff St
Carroll, IA 51401
(712) 792-5960

Moderator: Dan Stipe, DNR - Atlantic Field Office Supervisor

Co-sponsors:

Iowa State University
U.S.D.A.- Natural Resources Conservation Service
Carroll County Public Health Department
Iowa Cattlemen's Association
Iowa Department of Natural Resources

Agenda:

- Welcome - John Lawrence, Director of ISU Beef Center
- Brief overview of Elk Run Creek and DNR's Role
  - Dan Stipe, DNR - Atlantic Field Office Supervisor
- Power Point Presentation on the Findings at Elk Run Creek
  - Alison Manz, DNR - Atlantic Environmental Specialist
- Septic Tank Issues
  - Carey Kersey, Carroll County Sanitarian
- Conservation Methods that Have Worked in Carroll County
  - Dave York, NRCS District Conservationist
- Feedlot Controls and Management
  - ISU and DNR - Atlantic Field Office Staff
- Feedlot and Septic Tank Finance Options
  - Dave York, NRCS District Conservationist
  - Iowa Ag Development Authority
- Introduction of Thad Nanfito, DNR - Atlantic Field Office Environmental Specialist
- How the Iowa Cattlemen's Association Can Be of Assistance
  - Evan Vermeer, ICA – Vice President